

Cholesterol Is Dead

Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
He went to sleep last night, never out of bed
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead

When he died a party
With some pork ribs
An occasion
Why not bring the kids?

Don't send no flowers
Just a beer or two
While you're at it
Chicken and waffles – ooh!

Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
He went to sleep last night, never out of bed
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead

Jews and Black folks dance all around
Souls long lost
Never to be found
People with books thoughts abound
Many ideas hidden under ground

Christians and Muslims and dance around
Souls who can't be found
People can't read
But thoughts abound
They have ideas that stay under ground

Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
He went to sleep last night, never out of bed
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead

Very baked beans
Cheese and macaroni
A full rack
Of them ribs...

Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead
He went to sleep last night, never out of bed
Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead

Light up the barbecue, Cholesterol is dead!
