

He Claimed the Tree of Life

He claimed the tree of life
When the thunder rolled in

To reach a new height
Lightning first struck him

He a prophet would be
The world followed in faith

Apostate more likely
The universe did not take

Demons and saints
Before you hush

Use same paints
Are you a canvas or a brush?

Petrification
Loyalists are amok

The state of this nation
Skills unstuck

Could you help me Lord
Against these infidels

To use my sword
Dry indeed are their wells

How do you baptize
He claims to be near

The one stays disguised
The one he should have feared

There won't be no wrath
If you still pretend

You stay on a path
I can see an end

I hear a trumpet blow
Truth will not bend

People read don't you know
Liars can not defend

The Devil pretends to be
He will not forfend

A friend to you and me
You will need amends

Angels not always nice
Which side of history

But their hearts are right
Do you want to be

Show me a sign
Sleepless dreams

No need to be divine
Tell me what it means

The Devil wears pointy shoes
He wants to rule the world

He is in the news
New flags unfurled

He claimed the tree of life

To reach a new height
