

Ocean of Flame

The heart is an anchor in an ocean of flame
Things done and said brought a lotta shame
I am sinking down and down
Will I burn or drown?

Is there redemption in a rejection
Hello love and your best friend pain

Is there another way to stop breathing
Than drowning and flames searing

The heart is an anchor in an ocean of flame
Things done and said brought a lotta shame
I am sinking down and down
Will I burn or drown?

Are you a fence post
Can you talk out loud
Am I falling or pulled down
A new of kind of dark and cold never before seen
Yet all these flames a bit of relief

I loved you
You could see
I suppose it wasn't meant to be
I see a flaming pirate's chest
I found my place of rest

The heart is an anchor in an ocean of flame
Things done and said brought a lotta shame
I am sinking down and down
Will I burn or drown?

Am I sinking or pulled down
Am I burning or did I drown
I look up
Can you see me
Space and time and gravity

The heart is an anchor in an ocean of flame
Things done and said brought a lotta shame
I am sinking down and down
Will I burn or drown?

Let me drown in your sea of fire
Let me burn and lose this desire
