

The One With The Questions

Try to listen to treble
They got a bass don't you know
There's a mess of shiny objects
On the TV shows

It's a lot of conversation
Mostly echoes
People are believing
Things already known

The one with the questions is holy
The one with answers less so
Did you wake up asking
Or go to bed having known

If it's written in a book
Or on a scroll
It must be true
Every body knows

An old man climbed maintain
There were a lot stones
He had a leather flip-flop
With a lot of holes

The one with the question is holy
The one with answers less so
Did you wake up asking
Or go to bed having known

Last night's walls
Same as today's
White with web crawls
Spiders gone away

There's a lady on a milk create
She likes to scold
It is tough to listen
A lot of words full of mould

She has all the answers
Has she questions? No.
She forgot the reasons
But looks good in a robe

The one with the questions is holy
The one with the answers less so
Did you wake up asking
